SAN BERNARDINO, CA— San Bernardino Superior Court (SBSC) is excited to announce the expansion of the Probate Division into the west end and high desert regions of our county.

Beginning on Tuesday, September 5, 2023, probate matters will be heard in courtrooms F1, F2, and F3 at the Fontana Courthouse located at 17780 Arrow Boulevard, and in courtroom V12 at the Victorville Courthouse, located at 14455 Civic Center Drive.

At this time, the Probate Clerk's Office will remain located at the San Bernardino Justice Center, located at 247 W. Third St., in San Bernardino. Attorneys and members of the public may utilize eFile to electronically file their documents. They may also continue to file at the Probate Clerk's Office or file at a full service window located at the Victorville Clerk's Office. In the future, full service filing options will be available at the Fontana Courthouse.

"SBSC remains committed to utilizing the limited courtroom facility space we have to increase access to justice," said Presiding Judge R. Glenn Yabuno. "We thank the Legislature and Judicial Council for their continuous partnership on judgeships, space needs assessments, and investment in court services."

Access to justice to more than 2.2 million residents continues to be a high priority for our court. These changes are the result of evaluating and monitoring our service delivery model as we strive to meet the needs of our vast county.
